

The Ethos

I am the Spearhead.

I go before, to make a path.

I serve others in their darkest days, often in austere conditions.

Realizing this, I will keep myself physically strong, mentally sharp, and technically adept.

I will be ready.

I will be able.

I will be the first to those in need.

Above all, I seek purpose, not glory.